ITINERARY

DAY 1: ATHENS – CORINTH CANAL – EPIDAURUS – NAFPLIO

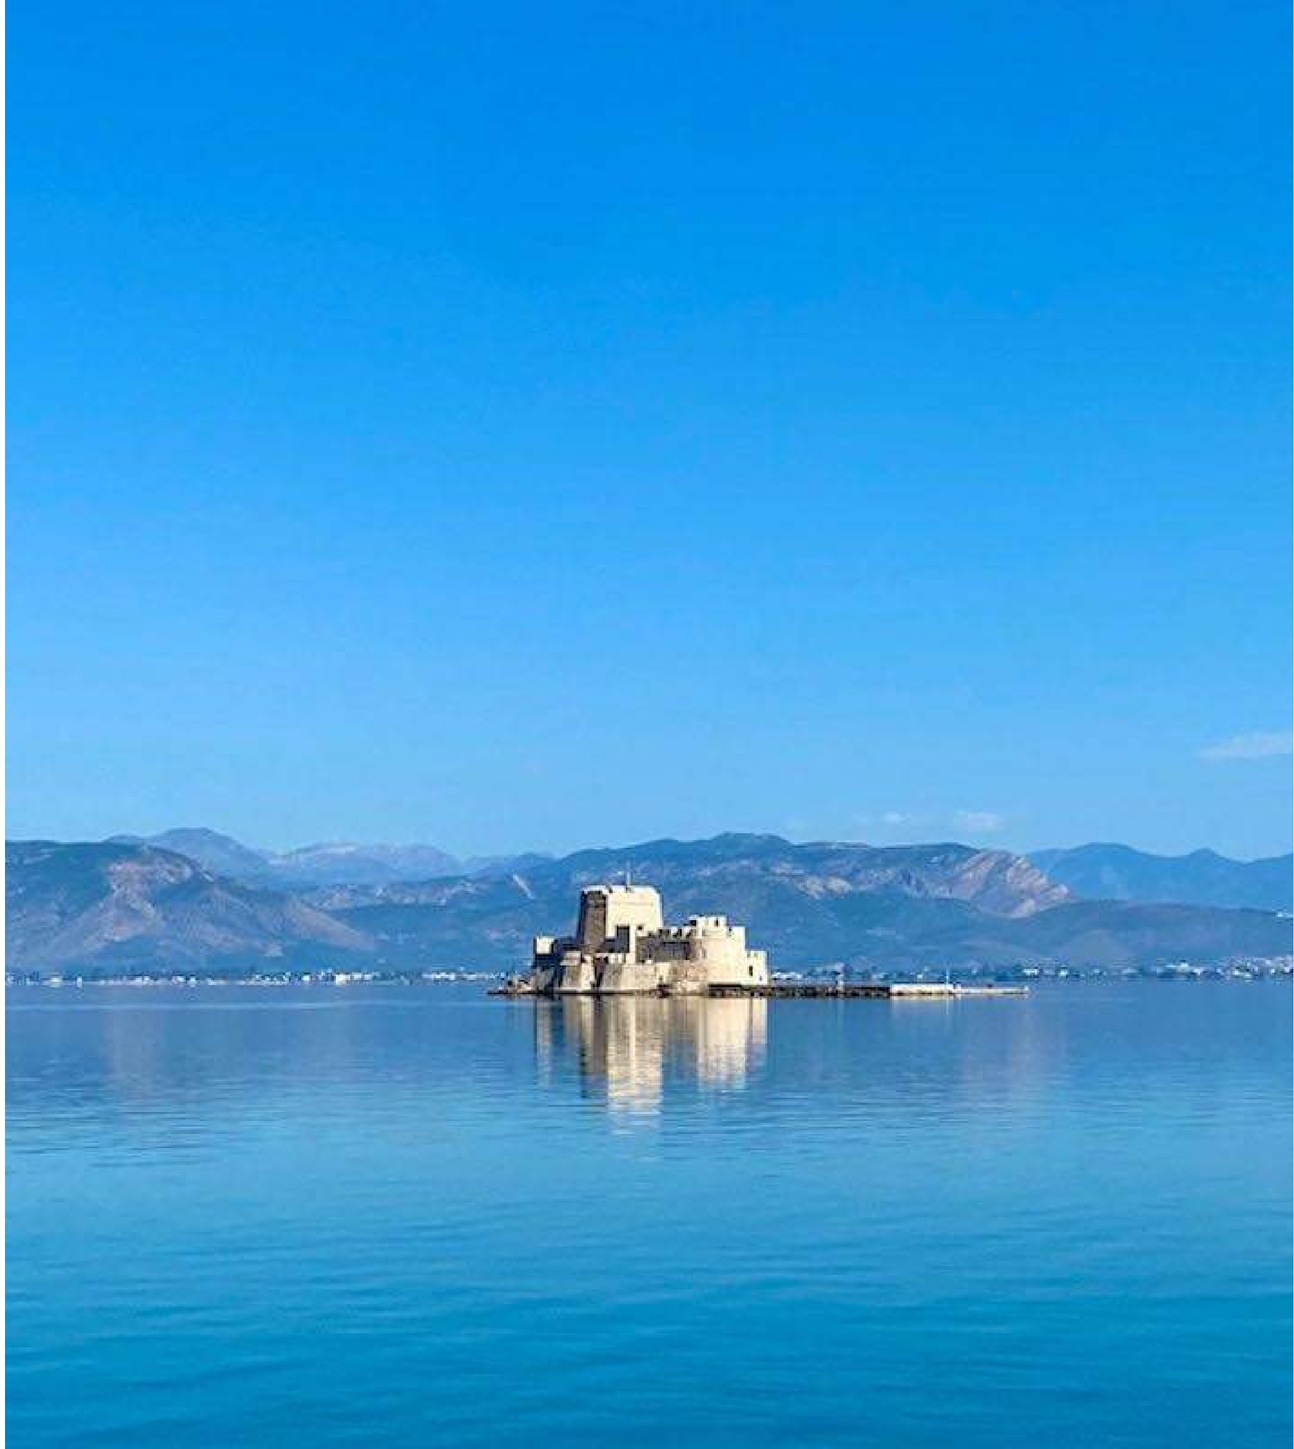
Our driver will pick you up from your hotel, then leave Athens and drive towards the Peloponnese. After a quick stop at the Corinth Canal, we will drive to our first destination, the Archaeological site of Mycenae, where we will visit the Palace of Agamemnon, the Museum, and the Treasury of Atreus. After visiting Mycenae, we will proceed to the Archaeological site of Epidaurus, where we'll explore the famous Theatre, renowned for its incredible acoustics, and the Asclepion, an ancient hospital and sanctuary dedicated to the god of medicine, Asclepius. The next stop will be the City of Nafplio, the first Capital of Modern Greece for a few years after Greece gained independence from the Ottoman Empire. Have lunch in the Old City and then explore the tourist area, characterized by its narrow streets, in this traditional part of Nafplio. We will spend the night in Nafplio.

DAY 2: NAFPLIO – MYSTRAS - SPARTA

The following day, after breakfast, we will drive to our next destination, the Archaeological Site of Mystras, the ruins of a fortified Byzantine Town built at the foot of Mount Taygetus in the 12th century, just 5 km from the city of Sparta. We can have lunch there or back in Sparta before visiting the Archaeological Museum, the Memorial, the Statue of the famous King of Sparta Leonidas, and the Museum of the Olive and Greek Olive Oil. Stay overnight in Sparta.

DAY 3: SPARTA – CAVES OF DIROS – OLYMPIA

The next day, we will drive south to the Mani region and visit one of the most beautiful Caves in Greece, the Cave of Diros. The visit is made by boat for the first 1,200 meters and on foot for the last 300 meters, with the cave's extent approximately 14 kilometers.
The next stop will be the coastal village of Stupa or Kardamyli, where we can enjoy lunch with a view of the sea. After lunch, we will drive to Kalamata and make a quick stop before heading to the village of Olympia, where we will stay overnight.



ITINERARY

DAY 4: OLYMPIA - ZAKYNTHOS

The following day, we will visit the Archaeological site, the Stadium where the ancient Olympic Games were held, and the two museums on the site: the Archaeological Museum and the Olympic Museum. Also, we can visit the Technological Museum of Archimedes in the village of Olympia. After, we can have lunch in Olympia and later drive to the Port of Kyllini, from where we will take the afternoon Ferry to the island of Zakynthos. There we will stay for the next two nights.

DAY 5: ZAKYNTHOS

The following day, we can tour the island by visiting the Blue Caves and the famous Shipwreck, and later, after we have lunch, we can go to the Gulf of Laganas and maybe swim with the sea turtles, or we can take a tourist boat and take a round trip of Zakynthos. Upon arrival on the island, you book your choice of activity at the port.

DAY 6: ZAKYNTHOS - DELPHI

The next day, early morning, we'll take the Ferry back to Kyllini, travel towards Patra, and drive over the suspended bridge of Rio, the longest in Europe (3,200 m). We'll cross to Mainland Greece and make a short stop at the picturesque city of Nafpaktos before continuing on the coastal road of the Corinthian Gulf, one of the most beautiful and scenic roads in the World, with a final stop at the village of Delphi. We'll stay overnight in Delphi.

DAY 7: DELPHI – ARACHOVA - ATHENS

The following day, we will visit the Archaeological site at Delphi that includes the Temple of Apollo, the most famous Oracle of the Ancient World for more than 16 centuries, the Theater, the Stadium in which they used to host the athletic events of Pythia, and the Archaeological Museum. Delphi has been listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1987. After visiting the site, we can enjoy a traditional lunch in the village of Delphi and make a quick stop in the picturesque town of Arachova before returning to Athens in the late afternoon.
